

C.V

Mr. Michael Whittingham CV

Date of Birth: 1/1/1969

Engineer

Degrees and Practical Experiences:

- Engineering Expertise (37 years of experience).
- Corporate leadership (30 years of experience).
- Wrote his first commercial software program at the age of 12.
- Joined Nolan Bushnell, founder of Atari, to bring digital video to the computer desktop, culminating in a broad patent covering video used on a computer. The products produced were using by Apple to develop QuickTime.
- Cofounded Wired, Inc. a pioneer in digital video and audio compression technology, where he was CFO and Director of Engineering. Wired was sold to Media 100, out of Marlborough, MA in 1999.
- In 2001 founded an online luxury goods retailer, which he ran until 2009 serving as President and Director of Sales and Marketing.
- In 2009 he founded Lumiversal, a company focused on Energy efficient interior lighting, where he served as President and CTO.
- In 2009 he also founded Techsensor, a company that developed solid-state FET devices for measurement and detection at the ionic level, for use in cost reducing medical grade products for consumer use, where he served as President
- He has been with Global Energy & Lighting since its inception in 2010 as founder and CTO.
- GEL focuses on energy efficient smart lighting for commercial/industrial/municipal/exterior and interior.